This agreement shall continue on a monthly basis and may be canceled on 30 days notice.

Applicant agrees to make no unauthorized extensions, attachments, or modifications to installation without the written consent of Citizens CATV. All wiring repairs, modifications, or changes in and to the cable television system wiring shall be made by Citizens CATV or its lawfully designated representatives.

The Subscriber agrees that representatives of Citizens CATV shall have the right to Subscriber's premises (1) for the purpose of installation, inspection repair, operation and maintenance of Cable Television equipment installed in the Subscriber's premises and (2) for the purpose of disconnection and removal of Citizens CATV equipment for nonpayment of amounts billed and delinquent or otherwise due and owing to Citizens CATV under this agreement. To the extent the Subscriber's permission, acquiescence, waiver and release is required to allow such entry or to allow the landlord to give Citizens CATV access to the Subscriber's premises, it is hereby expressly given.

Subscriber hereby agrees to give Citizens CATV permission or easement rights as may be necessary to properly install and service Citizens CATV system to the terminal point. Subscriber, if not owner of the premises specified to be serviced in this agreement, agrees to indemnify and hold Citizens CATV harmless from any and all claims of such owner or interested parties arising out of the performance of the agreement or claims arising from damage to concealed wire or equipment.

Citizens CATV shall provide the best television signals possible and shall incur no liability of any natural occurrence, failure or interruption of service caused by or resulting from any circumstances beyond its control.

Installation charges for a single house includes 150 feet of cable from Citizens CATV distribution cables to the Subscriber's connection terminal (house mounted). Any additional length required will be billed at $.15 per foot. Such additional charge will be invoiced on completion of installation. It is expressly understood that multiple outlets shall apply only to areas under one roof, excluding multiple dwellings, and that a separate dwelling such as guest house, shall be considered as a separate dwelling unit and will be subject to the regular installation and service charge.

It is mutually understood and agreed upon between the Subscriber and Citizens CATV that if the Federal Communications Commission, other federal state and local regulatory body, or courts of law assume jurisdiction over the rate service, conditions and/or provisions of the contract either by regulation and/or order in such assumption and jurisdiction; this contract shall be modified to comply with such order. In the event copyright or other similar fees are imposed on Citizens CATV for the transmission of cable television signals, Citizens CATV reserves the right to increase subscriber fees by the same amount.

Subscriber's rights hereunder are not assignable or transferable without the consent of Citizens CATV. In the event Subscriber sells the property, the Subscriber agrees to immediately notify Citizens CATV and hereby gives Citizens CATV permission on the day of sale to take steps the company deems necessary to terminate or transfer service. If Subscriber elects not to have service transferred to new occupant, then his unused service may be transferred to Subscriber's new address if within Citizens CATV franchised area with just an additional installation charge. Should Subscriber move out of the area served by Citizens CATV, than no monies will be refunded for unused service.

Citizens CATV reserves the right to make a service charge for service calls when the problem is not the fault of Citizens CATV.

Subscriber acknowledges that if a cable television channel converter will be installed in the Subscriber's premises, it is understood that the converter is the property of Citizens CATV, and Subscriber agrees to return the converter to Citizens CATV in good condition, upon the expiration of this agreement.

Citizens CATV rates are established by appropriate governmental authorities. In the event that the proper governmental authority should grant an increase in rates, Citizens CATV reserves the right to adjust its installation and service charges accordingly.

This agreement contains the whole agreement of the parties hereto, no understanding, representation or warranty made by any agents or representatives of Citizens CATV shall be binding upon Citizens CATV except herein provided.
